The Herald of Freedom. Lawrence, Saturday, July 14, 1855.

To Our Friends. The regular issue of this paper is none 2,000 copies weekly, and it might be materially in cy in our Legislative Assembly; and their sentiments openly and freely upon why a "unit" was desired there. Atchi- the subject of slavery to leave the Terrison is a resident of Platte county, tory, and an attempt is made-as it is and no doubt he hopes to be elected threatened-to enforce that order, then

Our friends in the East will strangle this monster ere its birth. As Mr. Hous-TON very aptly remarked in the Legisla-"Kansas is a minor yet, and its parent-Congress-will more than intimate at its next session that its pet child is not com- siding. petent for buffeting with the rough of life ; in the expectancy that after a few months of her exposed situation," with deep interest by all classes. With White, D. A. N. Grover, Chas. H. Grovthe exception of the unnecessary "fling", er, John Halderman, Jas. H. Lane, John Tuesday afternoon adjourning the Legislative Assembly to the Shawnee Mission. been left out of so important a State pa. Perkins, and Mr. Trusdale as suitable was passed through its several readings We cannot conceive any good to be at three latter gentlemen, who were absent, by that body. The Governor's veto, tained by going back to the States, and severally took the required oath as attor which will be found in another place, phantom. Abolitionism, as such, is not the question which has engrossed so large a portion of the public mind in the Northern States for the last few years; on the Court. contrary, it was resistance only to the oggressions of the slave power. No con- A. M. siderable party has been or is organized in the Northern States who seek aboliplatforms is to prevent the extension of Adjourned sine die. slavery over free territory. If slavery shall be tolerated by law in Kansas, then fact for the consideration of Governor ing our brief stay in that town. We another place.

The Message.

Wednesday the Fourth of July, was overrides all other questions. Instead and we saw what we hope never to see name we neglected to write down at the FUTURE; and in doing so, it would be all the lesser crimes appeared to be a will be as sacred as the 4th of July, 1776.

We are about to do an act which will be as sacred as the 4th of July, 1776.

We are about to declare the acts of Gov. selves in the way of a whichwind.

Miserable Pretext.

Jefferson Davis, the Secretary of War. been removed from office because he was an Abolitionist. And yet President Preace claims through Mr. Marcy, that he is about to remove Mr. Reeder for speculating in Kaw lands. The Missourians claimed, too, that they made their incursions upon Kansas because of Emigrant Aid Companies sending serfs and ingrant Aid Companies sending serfs and have first appeared in our city papers, unless than the claims of the elaims of those holding creating of the Message in the House, speech, as reported for the Herallo or the Companies sending serfs and have first appeared in our city papers, unless than the claims of those holding creating of the Message in the House, but this same Anderson, who, by the set its assumed authority at defiance; way, officially served for the server in surface to the server in sur paupers to Kansas. One pretext is about less it shall be the case that public meetequal to the other. We thought for a ings are held, or public speeches made give the report of the committee, and the time that there was a possibility of Mr. ofter the publication of our paper, and our next issue; also the report of the man-Pierce redeeming his administration by before the next shall be issued. Our sustaining Gov. Reeder, in giving him regular edition is probably twice as large aid and support during the most try- as either of the other papers in the place; ing period in the history of any Ameri- and we claim it is worthy of preference can colony; but instead of doing so he on that account, if preference is given to has only sunk himself still lower in the any one. We have stated this fact before, political hell which is excavated deep and and re-mention it that our friends may broad for aspiring demagogues, and truck- not forget our position in the premises.

During our brief stay at Pawnee we ranging over the prairies only fifteen suing the first number of the Pawnee ing as far as the eye can reach. Settlers Inquirer, a Democratic paper, in that who had located in the vicinity with place in a few weeks. His office is nearly herds of cattle have been compelled to ready to commence business. Mr. H. remove, for the want of grass, which has Inquirer, a Democratic paper, in that who had located in the vicinity with is a gentleman of fine talents, and will been consumed by those animals. The for him to know." no doubt make an interesting paper. His sympathies are in favor of making Kansas a Free State, and when the issue of days all the mest they could haul passed through, and sent up to the Council, where it was laid upon the table, but this Territory.

Popular Feeling in the North. | The Quasi-Legislature of Kansas. | the chief topic of the newspaper press of the chief topic of the newspaper press of the North and East. The various relicant possibly use, and yet have not even the importance of the chief topic of the newspaper press of the newspaper p gious denominations in their synods, asa condensed report of the proceedings of trict. The letter bears the impress of Saturday evening, the 7th inst., at 71 over this Territory. The bill, asit, sociations, conferences, &c., have taken the Quasi-Legislature, which we went all manhood, and is worthy the head and o'clock, and were called to order by Mr. on the records, reads as follows: sociations, conferences, &c., have taken the Quasi-Legislature, which we went all manhood, and is wormy the near and the matter in hand, and are wielding a the way to Pawnee to obtain. Neither heart of its author. The voice of this powerful influence in moulding public have we even a hasty note of our tour, letter is the voice of the masses in Kan-inson Secretary of the meeting.

The cloud, and were caused to order by Mr. An act to establish the statutes of the way to Pawnee to obtain. Neither heart of its author. The voice of this base of Kansas: Passed the inson Secretary of the meeting. the matter in hand, and are wielding a the way to Pawnee to obtain. Neither powerful influence in moulding public to his neighbors. There are few of our present subscribers who could not secure our new new exponent and responsive to the state of the st

As an inducement to exertion, each person who shall in future and we six new subscribers, accompanied with $12, shall be entitled to a secenth oughly alive to the wrongs inflicted upon The Legislature and Council met on Monday in a stone building, which, with oughly alive to the wrongs inflicted upon bility was that thousands would be in attendance. Crawford county is thoroughly alive to the wrongs inflicted upon the pioneers from the North in Kansas, and if the time shall ever come when the services of her sons are needed here, she will not remain a disinterested spectator.

Ashtabula county, O., at a late convendance of the state of Missouri back, with at the statutes of the State of Missouri back and that the statutes of the State of Missouri back and the council district of said Territory. It was also furnished with a certificate to that effect, authenticated by your signature and council met on the council district of said Territory. It was also furnished with a certificate to that effect, authenticated by your signature and the impress of the public scal. I beg leave now most respectfully to resign the position thus assigned me, and to return you the certificate I then re Caucuses were held all day Sunday, and Nebraska, ap-The pro-lavery party at Pawnee last services of her sons are needed here, she gramme was mostly known the day preweek kindly developed another more will not remain a disinterested spectator, vious. What was not developed on Sunwhich they have in prospective, by which they expect to check-mate the advocates tion, has taken the front step in the moveof freedom. It is no less than to re- ment to resist aggressions upon freemen the pro-slavery delegation. annex the Platte purchase to Kansas with in Kansas, if it shall be ever undertaken. Judge Elmons met in caucus with the its slave population. The Quasi-Legis- She pledges one man from every hun- pro-slavery party, and appeared to be givits slave population. The Quasi-Legis- She pledges one man from every nun-lature of Kansas consenting. Missouri dred of her population, and agrees to pay In fact it is represented that he had much will of course consent; then they join, and feed them from her county treasury. difficulty in restraining their impetuosity. form a State Constitution, and apply to In Michigan they are actually forming but finally succeeded in doing so. They Congress for admission as a slave State. companies, and drilling, expecting hour-The Missouri Legislature will meet in ly to hear the orders "march." Every November to consummate the fraud .- foot of New England is aroused. The November to consummate the fraud.— foot of New England is aroused. The for an investigation. They determined, however, finally, to let all have seats who is not founded upon conjecture, as it was boulders from their granite hills, are inactually developed as a part of the pro- digrant at the gross outrage practiced grame of the soi-disant Kansas Legisla- upon her sons; and when the hour of ture by one of its own members. The stern necessity shall demand their presite to order, and presided until they were issue must be met and resisted to the ence en masse in Kansas, they will be temporarily organized. Judge Johnston last extremity. This fact tells why our here. The people of Kansas, in the adm > bell rings." Third Judicial District.

The District Court of the United States tive Assembly, at Pawnee the other day, trict, was organized at Pawnee, July 2d,

A. J. Isaacs, Esq., District Attorney hence she will be sent back into tutelage, for the Territory, was present, and was Jas. H. Lyle, Clerk; John Martin, Asappointed a committee on application for of severe discipline she will be better admission to the bar; R. H. Hrogers Esq., Arms; and T. C. Campbell, Door Keepqualified to resist the seductions of those was appointed Clerk. No further busi- er. whose inclination it is to take advantage ness appearing before the Court, adjourned till to-morrow.

July 3d .- Court convened at lo'clock, both Houses. mittee on applications for admission valuable document, and will be perused tian, G. W. Brown, C. Albright, S. B. not allowed to go upon the record. per, it is an able document, terse in style, persons to practice at the bar of said and engrossed in about a half an hour. comprehensive, and forcibly written .- Court, who, with the exception of the The same bill was sent to the Council giving a side thrust at an imaginary neys in the District Court of the United was sent into the House on Friday morn-States, for Kansas Territory.

> Venires were ordered for Grand and Petit Juries returnable at next term of reading, after which Parliamentary rules were disregarded, and the bill was hur-

On the morning of the 4th inst., Geo. W. Perkins, and Mr. Trusdale appeartion. The avowed object through their ed in Court and were sworn as attorneys.

Intemperance in Pawnee.

During the whole period of our existan abolition party will be organized in the ence we have never witnessed so great an message was entered on file, but no fur-North whi h will sweep all other parties amount of intoxication, putting the whole ther attention was given to the matterinto oblivion. We merely suggest this together, as we observed at Pawnee dur- Mr. C.'s letter of resignation is given in REPDER, as well as for the considera- chanced to be there on the glorious the day which the chivalry had resolved tion of all men who produce agita- "Fourth," a day on which it was deemed should give birth to an event quite equal tion by attempting to crush out a spirit patriotic for the great mass of soldiers to the adoption of the declaration of Inwhich is prevalent in the land, and which who were exempt from duty to get drunk, dependence. One of the members, whose of evoking the past, let us guard the again. Profanity, fighting, boxing and that we lived in Lawrence, after beholding these things.

there is just cause for this condition of never be otherwise. We have the power habitable houses in the town : three of we will keep and exert that power. Kanthese are used for vending intoxicating sas is sacred to slavery."

The committee on credentials, in both

We will not publish communications.

the Parkville Luminary, is now getting a subscription list for a free State pa-

We are almost ready for the press, with resolved first to refuse the free State delerom the Governor-seats long enough held certificates from the Governor, and allow the other candidates to contest the inistered the oath of office. IN THE border neighbors have all along concern- meantime, hope that no occasion will Council Thomas Johnston, of the Shawed themselves to such an extent in Kan- arise which will demand resistance on Halderman, Clerk; Chas. Grover, Assistsas matters, and why they have expended so much money to secure an ascendenorders come for all who dare to speak Arms; and W. J. Godfrey, Door-Keeper. Messrs. Coffey, Johnson and Ritchis and no doubt he hopes to be elected threatened—to enforce that order, then very much disconnected by resolutions Governor of Kansas under this arrange—"look out for the locomotive when the gates. It was apparent that they were immediately voted down. This was true for Kansas Territory, 3d Judicial Dis- in both Houses during the entire proceedings.

IN THE HOUSE-J. II. Stringfellow, the 1855, agreeably to the Governor's pro-clamation, Sanders W. Johnston, pre-clared in his paper a few weeks ago that, "We have the reins of government in our own hands, and will drive with stiff lines and ourb bit," was elected Speaker; sistant Clerk; Mr. Cramer, Sergeant-at-

> A committee on credentials were anpointed in the House. Next week we will give the report of the committees in Legislature. It is an interesting and of Messrs. Rushford R. Rees, Jas. Chrischer the names affive to going back of the Governor's certificate of election, but the protest was A bill was introduced in the House on

> The rules were suspended, and the bill ing. It is needless to say, no attention was given to it, further than to give it a Adjourned till the 4:h inst, at 71 o'clock tive speed. Efforts were made to amend or to speak on the question, but every out of order; and the bill was passed; to be hurried through the Council in the > > Tuesday notifying the Council that M. F. Conway, Esq., had resigned his seat, Reeder a usurpation. It will be a proud ng these things.

Perhaps it will be proper to state that

Kansas is a slave Territory, and it should things at Pawnee. - There are but five in our own hands and so long as we live > and made a very forcible speech in silvo-FREEDOM, on our first page, and trust it will be read attentively by all. We shall be prompt to spurn and trample and moved for a calling of the roll, regive the report of the committee, and the protest of the members of the House in comes for the adoption of a State Consti-tution we have no doubt he will be found on the ground. They are making pre-laboring on the right side.

| Cit, where it was into upon the table, our tit is understood that it will be the first business in order when they re-assemble at the Mission. We give the "act" in

M., of Friday, for the Mission.

Below will be found a valuable letter the body of men who are to assemble at this place, on Monday next, as the Legislature of Kansas, and to engage with them in making laws to govern the people of this Territory. This I cannot do without lending countenance to the authority out lending countenance to the authority they assume to exercise. I was elected to represent the people of the 6th Council district in the Legislature of Kansas. Should I offer, in pursuance of that election to enter this fortheoming assembly and request such persons to discrept the policy of the first people of the council district in the Legislature of Kansas. Should I offer, in pursuance of that election to enter this fortheoming assembly and request such persons to discrept the policy of the counter the people of the council district in the Legislature of Kansas. Should I offer, in pursuance of that elections are the recent proceedings of the passed, lest the recent p the body of men who are to assemble at thereforesanction of those whom I should represent, to the validity of its pretensions; I and that said commutee report at an adwould acknowledge it to be the Legislajourned meeting of this body.

The bill was introduced in the House, all rules were suspended and the bill rushed through in less than one hour. the people had intended to elect me, carry out these measures, and earnestly were appointed a committee on creden-> whom they represent, and for whom they act, are alien endmies, who have violently seized the legislative powers of this Ter > S. J. Willis were appointed. ritory, and now seek to disguise their tyranny under the form of constitutional paper, for pledges to the resolutions enactments. Their Legislature is substantially a provincial council, instituted to the several papers in town for publi-and ordained by a daring and unscrupulons league in the State of Missouri and other parts of the South, to govern a people whose liberties they have ruthlessly stricken down. This fact has been placed beyond controversy by authentic details of concerted operations, looking to this end, and of overwhelming violence, at the recent elections, unparalleled in all our political history. The straight forward integrity exhibelection districts; and thus setting the authority of your office, as you have alas furthermore free to say to your Excellency, representing, as you do, the imperial authority of the Federal Government, in this land, that, while I am entirely disposed to pay all respect to the lawfully constituted authorities, I am yet not willing, whatever power may command it, to lend my neck, like a satisfied and gentle slave, to the yoke of foreign tyrants. To do so, would prove me represent to all their leisures and they been acting in another capacity. There was no printing office the patroi of the public. He will spare no effort to present the patroi of the public. He will spare no effort to present the patroi of the public that the patroi of the public that the patroi of the public the patroi of the public the patroi of the public that the patroi of the public the patroi of the patroi of the public the patroi of the public the patroi of the patroi of the public the patroi me recreant to all the lessons of heroism ment, not only actually tisten to the reador of duty I ever learned. I am so unfor- ing of such documents, but it is said tunate as to have been trained to some there are instances on record when they crude notions of human rights—some have absolutely listened to the whole of such notions as those for which, in ages similar documents "without fainting, past, our foolish ancestry periled their and have even gone so far as to get it lives, on revolutionary fields. And, how- printed and haid on their desks for readever wide-spread may be the disrepute ing during moments of leisure, for the into which those puerile fallacies have purpose of guiding their official actions. fallen in these sterling and enlightened it seems to us that "there is as much times, I am still hold to withstand their difference between legislative bodies as violation, in my own person, to the last between any body."

extremity of just resistance. Simply as a citizen and a man, I shall, therefore, yield no submission to this alica Legisla- a reading of the Message in the House,

Very respectfully yours,
M. F. CONWAY. Pawnee, K. T., June 30, 1855.

A young man by the name of HARE, matters pertaining to our Quasi-Legislature we are compelled to defer its publi-

Agreeable to previous notice, the first sas to-day.

PAWNER, K. T., June 30, 1855.

To his Excellency A. H. Reeder, Governor of Kansas:

Sir.:—I was officially declared by your Excellency, on the 6th of April last, to have been duly elected a member of the made street demonstrations of the inson Secretary of the meeting.

On call, appropriate and candid remarks were made by Messrs. Emery, Doy, Hutchinson, Allen, Willis, and others, setting forth the fact that during the past week intoxicating liquors had been sold in town, to persons who had that the statutes of the State of Missouri sign the position thus assigned me, and to return you the certificate I then received.

I am impelled to this course by what I believe to be due to myself, to the sanctity of law, and to the rights and dignity of the people of Kansas. In holding and exercising the trust reposed in me by the qualified voters of the 6th Council disqualified voters of the first passage; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to conflict with or make valid any subsequent set of this leg-

tion, to enter this fortheoming assem-blage, I would thereby give, by direct continue so doing at once, under penalty

Another argument was that the people of implication, my own sanction, and the sanction of those whom I should repreillustration of the Maine Liquor Law; have the benefit of her laws.

when they cast their suffrages in my fa- and cordially invite all order-loving citivor. This I am far from being prepared to do. It is a fact which has traveled the circuit of the whole civilized world, upon the people of Kansas by force of advise with the several rum sellers in was referred, who, after some consultations. Those he compose it, and those town, and report to an adjourned meeting the passage of the pas S. J. Willis were appointed.

Voted, that the Secretary circulate this

G. W. HUTCHINSON, Pres't WM, HUTCHINSON, Sec'y.

An Incident. Gov. REEDER, in consequence of the indisposition of his private secretary, was unable to make duplicate copies of his Message, one for each branch of the the unflinching disposition to maintain the rights of the people evinced by you in setting aside, without hesitancy, the elections in all the districts where contests were made in the requisite legal Representatives. That body listened to form, have been such as compel me to between one and two pages of the manubelieve that, had the evidence of the en- script, when Mr. Anderson sprang to tire outrage perpetrated upon the people in the election of this Legislature been put before you in the shape of legal tesmony, your Excellency would not have waive the further reading of the Message esitated a moment in taking the same as "the members were mostly present in ment was read before that body." It is ready done, your personal and private perhaps needless to say that the resoluence, against this audacious usurpa- tion was adopted, and those pro-slavery Solons absolutely refused to listen, in Under these circumstances, it would their official capacity, to a document adbe either fraudulent or pusillanimous in me to respect this as the Legislature of Kansas. I am not willing to do it.—

their afficial capacity, to a document addressed to them personally by the highest dignitary known to our laws, and Whatever the timorous or the time-serving may suggest or advise, I shall do nothing of the kind. Instead of recognizing this as the Legislature of Kansas, present in the Council chamber when and participating in its proceedings as the Message was before that body. What such, I utterly repudiate and reprobate if they were? They were there only in it, as derogatory to the respectability of the capacity of citizens, and of course popular government, and insulting to the were not giving the subject that consid-As an individual citizen of Kansas. I eration which they would have bestowed upon it had they been acting in another age from being further read."

tion, proved to be contrary to his wishes from Pennsylvania, while engaged in ly appearing member of the Quasi-Legis consumed in its consideration, though labor on the Emigrant Aid Hotel, in this lature of Kansas the other day at Big it extended the code of Missouri over the city, fell from the second story, on Fri-Springs, in a conversation about the ac passing so important a law; he had struck upon a joice which broke under that the members would introduce one renever seen the statutes of Missouri, and him, and precipitated him into the never seen the statutes of Missouri, and precipitated him into the base-deeming feature into their legislation, ment. He was severely injured, but hopes are entertained of his recovery. that the members would introduce one redeeming feature into their legislation, and adopt a prohibitory liquor law. His reply was significant:—"Should we do Our columns are so much crowded with bers of the House of Representatives for said : "I invite each of you to meet me at the Metropolitan to-night to discuss

The following is the bill passed at the trict, I would be required to uni e with moralizing influences over our town, make void any subsequent act of this leg-

A question was sprung while the bill power to repeal its own enactments. To obviate the whirlpool towards which they the circuit of the whole civilized world, that this Legislature has been imposed five be raised by the Chair, to visit and committee was appointed to whom it

Prices Eurrent.

Bris-S@9c. 2 fb. Hans-Smoked, 13c.; bacon, 11c.; prime pick-90c.; syrup. 75c. Rica −12%c. ⊋ В. Спаскава −10, 12@15c. ⊋ В. Сортка −14@15%c. ⊋ В. Сортка −14@15%c. ⊋ В. Тка−Васк. 50@60c. ⊋ В.; green, 20@$1 25.

BAR SOAP-86010c. 2 1

HAY- 2 ton. Lummer-825@35 2 thousand ft.

Lawrence Eating Saloon. HAVING recently opened an excellent Fat Saloon at No. 26 Massachusetts street, Lawrence, K. T., June 89, 1855.

WHOLESALE and retail, Lawrence, Kans. T. [June 28, '55,-tf.] C. S. PRATT. Cutler & Filer. SURVEYORS and Civil Engineers, office of the Territory. [Lawrence, June 16, '55.-

Dr. E. A. Barnes, PRYSICIAN & SURGEON, Main street, Law rence, K. T. [June 23, '55.—tf. Lumber! Lumber!!

THE KING OF THE WOODS is now in full opera

Ready Made Frame Houses. Mo.; Dr. C. Robins, Lawrence, K. T. ine 16, 55.—tf.

Young America's Library

Topeka Brick Yard.

40,000 BRICKS of the best quality are seriber, who has, at great expense, completed his arrangements, and is now propared to furnish the first quality of Brick at a fair price. Brick-making in Topoka is no longer a doubtful experiment.

L. W. HORNE.

Topoka, K. T., Jene 9, 1855.— V.

FORWARDING and COMMISSION MER-CHANT. has just completed his new Ware-house on the Levee, and is ready to receive the consignment of goods, either on commission or otherwise.

Laivence, June 2, 1855.— 6.

John Baldwin, Ferryman, HAS just completed his new ferry boat, and holds himself in readiness to take passengers and teams over the Kansas river, opposite Law-rence, at all hours, on application, at the usual Lawrence, June 2, 1855 .- ff.

City Property for Exchange. THE undersigned is desirous of exchanging City Property in Lawrence for a pair of lorses or Ponies, and a light Wagon or Euggy. J. K. GOODIN. Wakerusa, June 30, '55.—tf.

Bring on your Saw Logs! THE undersigned will commence sawing at their new mill in Lawrence, on Monday the 11th inst. So bring on your logs and have them sawed at once. The good old rule "first come first served," will be strictly followed. Lumber will be kept constantly on hand. The highest market price will be paid for saw logs.

June 9, '55.—tf HUNT & Co.

1.000 AGENTS WANTED. ONE THOUSAND AGENTS wanted immediately, in every part of the United States, to canvass for subscribers to the Herald or Fran-

THE undersigned, in connection with his profession, will attend to the sale and exchange of Claims to Land in this Territory. Also, buy and sell Interests in the City of Lawrence Claims and City Interests now for sale at his office on Massachusetts sirect.

EDWARD CLARK, Att'y, a Counsellor.

On the 11th inst., a gray Horse, 15 hands high and heavy built, dark mane and tail, barefooted and flea blitten, 7 years old; also two mare mules—one a serrel 6 years old, roche main and tail, and barefooted; the other a bay, 8 years old, with star in forehead, mane trimmed close, and pair of shoes on fore feet if not lost off.—Any person finding the same and giving information to A. S. Hollemsu, on the Wakarusa, 20 miles from Lawrence, or to M. E. B. Johnston, three-fourths of a mile south of Franklin, shall be liberally rewarded. [June 30, 25.—81]

Fashionable Tailoring. A S. ADDIS, TAILOR, takes plea A ure in stating to the public the last opened a Fashionable Tailorin Establishment in the rear of Aller & Browness Store, and that he holds himself in readiness, make gentlemen's and boys' clothes, of all descriptions, on short notice. He will be in regular receipt of the latest castern fashion plate and feels confident of his ability to give entit and feels confident of his ability to give entit and feels confident of his ability to give entit antisfaction to those who patronize him.

[137] Espacial attention will be given to the cutting of garments, for home making up.

Latercocce, May 12, '55.—tf.

PACKET STEAMER Roums Harmon, Wing Master, will leave Kansas city Monday and Thorsday; veturning wil Lawrence every Wednesday and Sauricay.

The public may depend upon this steamer bein prompt and regular, also that she will conting in the trade for the season. Every effort will made to give satisfaction. In consideration, solicit the patronage of shippers and passenge For freight or passage apply on hound, or to HUTCHINSON, HARLOW & CO., Ag'ts.

TTORNEY and Counsellor at Law. Office at Albin Cottage.

Lawrence, K. T., May 26, '55 - 3cm.

HAMMOND & FULLER near the Steam Sa:
Mill, in Lawrence, desire to contract immediately for two hundred cords of four flost WOOL
They are erecting a machine, and hope to has any quantity of brick for sale in six weeks fros this time.

Shingles! Shingles!! April 14, 1855.—tf. Riddlesbarger & Co.,

WHOLESALE GROCEES, Con Edward Clark, A TTORNEY, SOLICITOR & COUNSELLOR, A and General Land Agent. Office on Massa-chasette street, Lawrence, Kansas Territory. Lawrence, Feb. 12, '55.

B. Slater, Biagara Temperance House,

Dr. John Doy, MAIN street, Lawrence, E. T. Jan. 20, '55.

J. S. Emery

Great Excitement in Lawrence

than a "slow shilling," we have put our goo down at the lowest possible leving prices; all sak is an examination of our stock and prices. We charge nothing for showing our goods, a flatter ourselves that we can plause the most fidious.

HORNSBY & FERRIL Laurence, May 5, 7555.—tf.

Prospectus of the KANSAS FREEMAN.

THE Above is the title of a weekly newspaper to be published at Topeke, Kansas Territory on Wednesday of such week, at $2.00 per annum always in advance.

The Freeman will make no promises at the All communications for the Frankan to be a directed to Edward C. K. Garvey & Co., Topek Kansan Territory.

KDWARD C. K. GARVEY & Co.

Topeks, K. T., June 9, '55

Warren's Fire and Water Proof COMPOSITION ROOFING.

Hoe No. 11, over Post Office, St. Louis, M. d cumstances, and confidently offer it to the pass a mode of Roofing unobjectionable in e important particular, while it combines it greater degree than any other Roofin use the tuable requisites of cheapness, durability, and curity against fire and water.

Materials for sale, with directions for use.

C. M. & H. M. WARREN.

L. C. Tolls, M. D.,

P. A. BUNT. B. SLATER. F. A. Hunt & Co.